

TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR A STAY IN AN HOST FAMILY

These terms and conditions are for a stay in a French family for any students who are registered in Lil'Langues. In booking a stay in a host family, the student accepts those terms and conditions.

INTRODUCTION

Living in a host family, is not like living at a hotel. This is a unique experience to discover the French culture and practice the language. It is strongly recommend sharing moments with the family who is here to share this experience with you. You, both need to respect each other in his culture and

REGISTRATION

The registration for a stay in a family is definitive and cannot be refund. The booking fee are 50€ and cannot be refundable like the registration fee for the courses.

In paying those booking fee (50€) to Lil'Langues, the student accept to stay in a family during all his/her training in Lil'Langues. This stay cannot be longer or shorter than the courses in the language centre.

As soon as the student has paid the booking fee to Lil'Langues, we will give him/her the contact details (email and phone number) to the family to take contact directly with them in order to organize him/her arrival. The student can communicate with the family in French or in English.

The arrival will be on Sunday and the departure before Saturday noon.

To benefit from accommodation with a host family, you must:

- Be older than 18
- Be registered at Lil'Langues for more than 15h per week

Any request for reservation must reach us at least 1 month before your arrival.

A stay cannot exceed 2 months (8 weeks).

CANCELLATION

Any cancellation of your courses at Lil'Langues results in a cancellation of your stay with host family. Booking fee and registration fee are never refundable.

FAMILIES

Lil'Langues works in collaboration with quality host families who are used to hosting foreign students.

The choice of the host family is made by Lil'Langues according to the availability of each family.

Due to the architecture of Lille, the host families are often located in the suburb of Lille and always close to public transport. You will need to take the public transportation to get to Lil'Langues from the Family.

PAYMENT

The student will have to pay the host family from the day of him/her arrival, the amount for the nights and breakfast (130 € / week - From Sunday to Saturday) corresponding to the length of his stay. At the end of the stay, the student will have to pay the dinners taken with the family (7 € / dinner). In case of late payment, the family reserves the right to ask the student for a supplement of 5% of the total price.

If the student needs a proof of accommodation, he / she will have to pay the entire amount to the host family (excluding diners) before his arrival so that they can send him/her a letter of accommodation.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS

If the student has an allergy, an illness that requires special attention or any other requests, he/she must inform Lil'Langues AND the family of it when he/she is registered.

CHANGE OF THE FRENCH FAMILY

Before or during the stay is only possible, in case of force majeure, to change the family, in agreement with Lil'Langues, the host family and the learner.

DISCIPLINED

Lil'Langues reserves the right to exclude the student from the school (without notice or refund) for not respecting your commitment to the host family.

INSURANCE AND RESPONSIBILITY

The student is responsible in the event of a health problem, accident or deterioration of the property of the host family. Before coming to France, he/she must check that he/she is insured for any medical expenses or in case of damage. Neither Lil'Langues nor the host family can be held responsible for theft, damage or loss of personal effects of the student during his/her stay.

COMPLAINT

In case of a complaint about your stay in a host family, please contact the accueil to fill out the corresponding form. We will answer you within 24 business hours.

In : _____

The : _____

Signature :
